Information Presented

Information was presented by Todd Black on potential conflicts with other threatened or endangered species and other species of concern and how they ought to be treated and address in the plan. The group had discussion and felt it would be in their best interest to address these issues and concerns throughout the plan as it would be deemed necessary. The pygmy rabbit will be addressed in the management plan as well.

Todd went over what was presented to the Color Country LWG (CCLWG) the previous day with regards to the unit boundary description and map. The group worked with the GIS coverage of the area and re-defined the area based on administration and possible movement patters of the birds and the CCLWG.

The group started working on defining the localized plan and worked on writing potential goals and objectives.

Discussion Highlights

Next meeting was scheduled for March 25th at 10:00 AM in the Extension office conference room in Loa.
